Maddin, Hauser, Wartell, Roth, & Heller P.C.

JAMES M. REID IV, a shareholder at MADDIN, HAUSER, ROTH & HELLER PC has received the Oakland County Bar Association's 2014 Distinguished Service Award. The award recognizes OCBA members who provide exceptional voluntary services to benefit the organization.

The announcement was made by the firm's President and CEO Steven D. Sallen.

Reid works with employers, human resource professionals, and business owners on a range of employment issues including; employment policies and contracts, handbooks, employment agreements, non-competes, non-disclosure agreements, and release and separation agreements.

He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science-Prelaw from Michigan State University and his law degree from Wayne State University Law School.

Reid is a member of the National and Detroit Chapters of the Society of Human Resources Management, Oakland County Bar Association and State Bar of Michigan, Labor and Employment Law Section, and is admitted to practice before the federal and state courts of Michigan.

Reid has authored several articles regarding strategies to update employee handbooks and challenge unemployment claims. He is also a frequent presenter at local and national webcasts, podcasts and conferences regarding best employee handbook practices, as well as strategies for franchisees and other non-union businesses to comply with the National Labor Relations Act and respond to union activity.

In addition, three attorneys from Maddin, Hauser, Roth, & Heller PC have been selected for recognition in the legal research publication Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business 2014. This is the fourth year in a row that Maddin Hauser attorneys were chosen.

Firm Shareholders CHARLES M. LAX, GARY M. REMER, and MARC S. WISE were honored in the Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation practice area. Lax and Remer have made this list the past three years. Wise also is a repeat selection.
