John A. MacKenzie Joins Maddin Hauser

Maddin Hauser is pleased to announce that John A. MacKenzie has joined the firm's growing Complex Litigation and Risk Advisory Practice Group as an Associate.

The announcement was made by the firm's President and CEO, Steven D. Sallen. "John's proven experience successfully representing clients in a broad range of litigation disciplines will enhance our firm's ability to provide comprehensive results for all of our clients' litigation-related matters," said Sallen.

An experienced litigator, MacKenzie represents clients in commercial litigation, real estate matters and insurance defense. He has tried cases to verdict obtaining favorable results for his clients; and also regularly represents clients in various alternative dispute resolution forums including facilitation and arbitration.

MacKenzie graduated cum laude from Thomas M. Cooley Law School where he served as the Associate Editor of its Law Review. He is admitted to practice law in Michigan and is a member of the Macomb and Oakland County Bar Associations.
