Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller Names Associates

Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller PC, a Southfield, Michigan-based law firm, has named Rachel A. Hutton and Jesse L. Roth as associate attorneys.

Hutton is a member of the firm's corporate and employment practice group. She focuses her practice on corporate, employment, and real estate matters. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree, with honors, from the University of Michigan, and received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Michigan State University College of Law. She is admitted to practice in the state of Michigan. While in law school, Hutton worked as a student clinician at the Michigan State University College of Law Rental Housing Clinic, and was a legal intern for the Honorable Judge Mark A. Goldsmith of the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan.

Roth is a member of the firm's defense and insurance coverage practice group. Roth earned his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School, where he was awarded a Clarence Darrow Scholarship — a three-year, full-tuition merit scholarship. He is admitted to practice in the state of Michigan. While in law school, he received a Certificate of Merit in International Corporate Governance. Roth also served in the chambers of a U.S. Magistrate for the U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey. Prior to law school, he worked for an educational startup company in Mexico and then for the Cleveland Indians baseball team.
