

---

Corinne Rockoff Selected Runner Up for 2021 Regeana Myrick Outstanding Young Lawyer Award

Maddin Hauser is thrilled to announce attorney Corinne S. Rockoff was selected as a runner-up for the 2021 Regeana Myrick Outstanding Young Lawyer Award. The awards are given on behalf of the State Bar of Michigan Young Lawyers Section. Honorees are young lawyers who demonstrate an overwhelming commitment to public service, service to the bar, and exceptional leadership.

“We are proud to see Corinne recognized for her many accomplishments and her leadership,” said Kaitlin A. Brown, shareholder, executive committee member, and 2018 recipient of the Outstanding Young Lawyer Award. “She is the epitome of an outstanding young lawyer – dedicated to practicing law with professional excellence, and as a passionate advocate for her clients and the community. Corinne’s drive to help individuals and organizations be their best – by resolving the immediate problems while building long-term strategies for success – inspires others to do the same.”

As an associate with Maddin Hauser, Corinne’s practice includes real estate and mortgage litigation, general civil litigation, securitization transactions and disputes, title claims and litigation, construction disputes, and financial services. She works with a range of financial institutions, entities, individuals, and investors.

Corinne is admitted to practice in Michigan, New York, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. A member of the Oakland County Bar Association, the State Bar of Michigan LGBTQA Law Section, and the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan, Corinne also serves on the board of the Ruth Ellis Center.