
Firm supports insurance agents of America; Mitchell writes inaugural article

The Firm has become one of the original sponsors of a new insurance industry group, Insurance Agents of America. The group focuses on new and hot topic issues facing insurance agents, brokers and companies throughout the country. Richard Mitchell has written for the inaugural publication. Mr. Mitchell is a member of the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriters Society and is the past president of the Greater Detroit Chapter of that organization.