

---

Thomas W. Werner Elected to Board of Directors for Michigan Youth Arts

On June 5, 2015, Thomas W. Werner was elected for a three year term to the board of directors for the Michigan Youth Arts, an organization that provides opportunities to youths across the state to participate in choral, instrumental, visual, film, dance and written arts.

An associate in the firm's Defense and Insurance Coverage Practice Group, Werner graduated with honors from the Indiana University School of Law – Bloomington, where he served as Notes and Comments Editor to the Federal Communications Law Journal. He was named a 2011 Rising Star by Michigan Super Lawyers.

“Throughout my life, my participation in the arts has taught me about professionalism, teamwork, and the value of practice, among many other invaluable skills,” Werner stated. “I look forward to working with the board to ensure that all Michigan youths are afforded the same opportunities that made me the person I am today.”

Read the Detroit Legal News Article