
Thomas W. Werner Appointed to Shareholder

Maddin Hauser is pleased to announce the promotion of Thomas W. Werner to shareholder.

The announcement was made by the firm's President and CEO, Steven D. Sallen. "We're pleased that Thomas has become a shareholder of our firm. Since joining us in 2011, Tom has consistently provided our clients with expert advice and counsel to achieve positive results in commercial litigation, insurance coverage defense, and product liability defense matters." said Sallen.

Prior to joining the firm, Werner concentrated his practice on commercial litigation, insurance coverage, and defense of product liability actions throughout the country. He is a published author and has made several professional presentations, including seminars teaching clients how to properly communicate and draft contracts, in order to avoid litigation.

In 2004, Werner graduated with honors from the Indiana University School of Law in Bloomington, Ind., where he served as Notes and Comments Editor to the Federal Communications Law Journal. He also served as clerk to the City of Bloomington legal department, where he aided in municipal litigation before multiple courts, including the Indiana Supreme Court.

Werner is admitted to practice before all courts in the State of Michigan, and before the United States District Courts for the Eastern District of Michigan, the Western District of Michigan, the Western District of Pennsylvania, and the Northern District of Indiana. He was named a 2011 Rising Star by Michigan Super Lawyers. In June, 2015, Werner was elected for a three-year term to the Board of Directors for the Michigan Youth Arts, an organization that provides opportunities for young people across the state to participate in choral, instrumental, visual, film, dance and written arts.

