

---

Maddin Hauser Hosts 26th Annual Tax Symposium

On November 11th, 2017, Maddin Hauser hosted its 26th annual Tax Symposium at the Sheraton Detroit-Novis Hotel.

This year's event featured topics and speakers including:

- The Why and How of Non-Charitable Purpose Trusts presented by Robert D. Kaplow
- A Review of the New Centralized Partnership Audit Regime
- The Accountant's Role in the Due Diligence Process Purchase of a Business presented by Stuart M. Bordman
- Roundup of Recent Tax Developments presented by William E. Sigler
- Employer's Guide to UIA Tax Filings & Responding to Claims presented by Kaitlin A. Brown
- Status of ACA – The Rash that Won't Go Away presented by Marc S. Wise
- Honey We Can Cancel Our Trip to the Cook Islands – Michigan Has an Asset Protection Trust Statute! presented by Geoffrey N. Taylor
- Controlled and Affiliated Service Groups – A Quick Overview presented by Charles M. Lax

The symposium materials are available for download on the firm's website.

---

---

© Maddin Hauser Roth & Heller P.C. All Rights Reserved. | 248.354.4030 | 248.354.1422 Fax