
Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller Named Among “2014 Go-To Law Firms® at the Top 500 Companies”

Southfield, Mich. – February 4, 2014 – Southfield-based Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller, P.C. has been named as one of the “2014 Go To Law Firms® at the Top 500 Companies” in the area of Litigation. The honor, a result of work done by the firm’s Consumer Finance/Regulatory Compliance and Real Property Litigation Practice Group, places the firm in an elite group that delivers work for the in-house legal departments at Fortune 500 companies.

Published in Corporate Counsel’s In-House Law Departments at the Top 500 Companies, recipients are selected after an extensive research process that involves data provided by general counsel at Fortune 500 companies, leading business executives and law firms. Led by Martin Frenkel and David Hart, Maddin Hauser’s real property litigation team has extensive experience in litigation, arbitration and other alternative dispute resolution procedures involving a wide variety of cases.

Members of the firm’s real property litigation practice group have represented clients across the whole spectrum of real estate and banking matters in federal and state trial courts, appellate courts, and administrative agencies and boards.

Click to download the Oakland County Legal News article

Click to download the Detroit Legal News article

Click to download the State Bar of Michigan eJournal article