
Stewart C.W. Weiner Quoted: Outside Auditors Hired to Inspect Jewish Community Center's Finances

A task force, led by Stewart C.W. Weiner, was established several months ago to develop a financial stabilization plan for the Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit, which has been struggling to manage inherited debt. This article from the Detroit Free Press sheds light on the situation and the Federation's decision to employ an auditing firm to conduct a "forensic investigation" into the center's financial reporting.
