Maddin, Hauser, Roth, & Heller PC

Maddin, Hauser, Roth, & Heller PC is pleased to announce the promotion of David M. Eisenberg to shareholder. The announcement was made by the firm's president and CEO, Steven D. Sallen.

Eisenberg is a member of the firm's Bankruptcy, Restructuring and Debtor-Creditor Rights Practice Group as well as the Financial Services and Real Property Litigation Practice Group. He concentrates his practice on business-related insolvency, commercial litigation and collection matters in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, U.S. District Court, and in state court proceedings, as well as out-of-court loan modifications and workouts.

Eisenberg's clients include debtors, creditors, and receivers in state and federal courts. A substantial portion of his practice involves representation of creditors, including financial institutions, in all matters involving consumer debt cases filed under Chapters 7 and 13 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, including lift of bankruptcy stay actions, defense of preference and avoidance actions, and objections to the discharge of debt.

As part of Eisenberg's experience, he has represented suppliers, contractors, union fringe benefit funds in the construction industry, and receivers appointed in matters instituted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. He engages in pro bono representation of bankruptcy debtors in non-dischargeability proceedings.

Eisenberg has been recognized as a Michigan Super Lawyers® Rising Star from 2013-2015 in the practice area of business bankruptcy and creditor debtor rights. He has also been selected by his peers for inclusion in the 2020 edition of The Best Lawyers in America® in the practice area of bankruptcy and creditor debtor rights/insolvency and reorganization law.
