

FARMINGTON

News from the heart of our community

VOICE

August 6, 2015

Farmington Hills attorney joins Southfield firm

Farmington Hills attorney Gary A. Kravitz has joined Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller, P.C.'s Real Estate, Corporate and Business, and Franchise practice groups.

“With over 15 years of experience handling a wide variety of complex real estate and business transactions, Gary’s vast expertise will strengthen our firm’s capabilities in providing clients with comprehensive, creative and timely solutions in these areas,” said Steven D. Sallen, president and CEO of the Southfield-based law firm.

Admitted to the bar in Michigan, Kravitz received his undergraduate degree from Cornell University in 1990, earning his Juris Doctor from George Washington University Law School in 1993 and his Master of Laws (LLM) in Taxation from Wayne State University Law School in 2007.

Kravitz is a member of the U.S. Green Building Council’s Commercial Real Estate Committee and the State Bar of Michigan’s Law Related Education and Public Outreach Committee. He also serves as vice president of the Six Rivers Land Conservancy, an organization focused on conserving, sustaining and connecting natural areas, lands and waters.