

Maddin, Hauser, Roth, & Heller PC is pleased to announce that Julie Beth Teicher will be inducted as a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy on March 15 in Coronado, California. The College is an honorary professional and educational association of bankruptcy and insolvency professionals. The announcement was made by the firm's president and CEO, Steven D. Sallen.

Teicher is a shareholder in Maddin Hauser's Creditor's Rights, Bankruptcy and Insolvency Group and Financial Services and Real Property Litigation Group. She concentrates her practice on business-related insolvency and bankruptcy matters, handling cases in U.S. Bankruptcy Court, U.S. District Court and State court proceedings.

A certified Bankruptcy Court mediator, Teicher has served as an adjunct professor at the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law at various times since 2006, and has presented at numerous seminars.

Teicher is AV rated in Martindale Hubbell and is included in its registry of preeminent women lawyers. She has been recognized in DBusiness Magazine's Top Lawyers, named in the Best Lawyers in America® and listed in the Michigan edition of Super Lawyers®. Additionally, Teicher was recognized as one of the Top Women Lawyers for Business Bankruptcy by Super Lawyers® and named the Best Lawyers® Detroit Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency and Reorganization Law "Lawyer of the Year" for 2019.
