

January 30, 2017

Legal People

Southfield multi-specialty law firm Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller PC is pleased to announce the promotion of Gary A. Kravitz to shareholder.

The announcement was made by the firm's President and CEO, Steven D. Sallen.

Gary A. Kravitz

A member of Maddin Hauser's Real Estate, Corporate and Business, and Tax practice groups, Kravitz represents clients in real estate matters including: property acquisition and disposition; office, retail and industrial lease agreements; option agreements; and real estate related litigation.

Kravitz counsels clients on business law matters including structuring LLCs and corporations, asset and stock purchase transactions, and preparing various documents such as employment, confidentiality, non-compete and shareholder agreements. He also assists clients with financial matters in the areas of lending, foreclosures, workouts and refinancing.

Admitted to the bar in Michigan, Kravitz received his undergraduate degree from Cornell University and earned his law degrees from George Washington University Law School and Wayne State University Law School.

Kravitz serves as vice president of the Six Rivers Land Conservancy, an organization focused on conserving, sustaining and connecting natural areas, lands, and waters.