

BUSINESS

By Kathy Blake kblake@digitalfirstmedia.com

Aug 9, 2018

Southfield lawyer awarded Lifetime Achievement Award

Robert D. Kaplow— a shareholder at Southfield law firm, Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller, P.C.— was honored with the Leonard N. Simons Lifetime Achievement Award by the Jewish Historical Society of Michigan, (JHSM). He is one of only four people to receive the award in the history of the organization.

Kaplow, a resident of Farmington Hills, served as president of JHSM in 2002 and has been active in the organization through the years. He helped launch “Settlers to Citizens: A 21st Century Tour of Historic Jewish Detroit” for religious school students, and helped to form the JHS of Michigan Heritage Foundation in which he continues to serve as chairman.